INTERNATIONAL FACULTY &
MEMBER OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

DR. SUSAN DENT

- MD, FRCPC, FICOS
- Current President, International Cardio-Oncology Society (IC-OS)
- Dr. Dent attended McMaster University Medical School in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, and completed her residency training in Internal Medicine and Medical Oncology at the Ottawa Hospital, University of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada. She subsequently completed a post-graduate research fellowship year in clinical trials at the Canadian Cancer Trials Group (CCTG) in Kingston, Ontario, and was subsequently appointed as a staff medical oncologist at the Northwestern Ontario Cancer Center in Thunder Bay, Ontario.
- In 2001, Dr. Dent returned to Ottawa, where she specialized in the treatment of breast cancer. In 2008, Dr. Dent, working with her cardiology colleagues, established a multidisciplinary cardio-oncology clinic in Ottawa— the first of its kind in Canada. In 2011, she founded the Canadian Cardiac Oncology Network (CCON), a not-for-profit organization devoted to optimization of cancer care for patients without compromising cardiovascular health. She then served as Professor of Medicine, Associate Director of Breast Cancer Clinical Research, and Co-Director Duke Cardio-Oncology Program at Duke University School of Medicine.
- In September 2024, Dr. Dent joined the Wilmot Cancer Institute in the Division of Hematology and Oncology, Department of Medicine, University of Rochester in Rochester, New York. She serves as Director of the Cardio-Oncology Program, as well as Director of the Judy DiMarzo Cancer Institute Survivorship Program.
